

Abrasive Wheels Training

Course Overview:

- Course Duration: ½ – 1 day
- Maximum Instructor/Delegate Ratio: 1:12
- Delivery Method: Classroom + workspace
- Prerequisite: None
- Awarding Body: NPORS / In-House
- Assessment: Theoretical and Practical exam
- Certification: Successful delegates will receive a NPORS / In-House Certificate of Training

Durations:

- Abrasive Wheels Novice Training: ½ - 1 day (depending on application and candidate numbers)
- Abrasive Wheels Refresher Training: ½ day
- Abrasive Wheels Experienced Operator - no proof of training (test only): ½ day

Course Content:

- Understand the legal requirements and their responsibilities for the safe use of abrasive wheels
- Identify a potential hazard and its reasonable foreseeable risks
- Select the appropriate machinery and PPE required for the work being undertaken
- Select the appropriate safety equipment that may be used and carry out appropriate pre-use checks
- Be able to correctly mark, store, handle and transport abrasive wheels and any ancillary equipment's such as discs
- Conduct a practical exercise using the appropriate safety equipment in a safe and efficient manner

Course Assessment:

- Theoretical assessment of 5 open and 20 multiple choice questions, which can be conducted orally where language barriers or literacy difficulties exist.
- Practical Test of basic operating skills, confirming skills taught on the training course